Leadership Muhlenberg County is a commitment!

Leadership Muhlenberg County is a nine-month program. It will begin in September and end in June with no meeting in December. During this period, participants will be required to attend nine 7-hour sessions. These meetings will take place during the work week. Therefore, it is important that your employer support this program by allowing you the time away from your job in order to attend these sessions.

"I have read the attached application and realize the commitment it will involve. I hereby recommend the applicant for the current class of Leadership Muhlenberg County."

Employer's Signature

"If selected as a participant, I will commit the necessary time and effort to the leadership program."
